

Is this a transfer or credit card payment?

Quicken has found what appears to be a transfer or credit card payment between your accounts. Before the transactions are entered into your registers, Quicken would like you to confirm that this is true.

- Click Yes to confirm the transfer or credit card payment. This will create a transfer of funds in Quicken from one account into the other account.
- Click No to enter individual (non-transfer) transactions into the two accounts in Quicken.
