Upgrade your Quicken software

We strongly recommend that you upgrade your Quicken software whenever a new version is available. You will get a notification when you launch Quicken. Click on the notification and install the updates.

You can also always check to see if there are updates by going to the Quicken > Check for Updates menu item.